

Grammar

Nouns & articles/determiners. We will start to notice that in Spanish there are often more options for single words like determiners in English. For example, as seen with the word for 'the' in Spanish. El león but la jirafa.

We will see that this happens a lot in Spanish and learn why in future units!

Culture

Getting to know and exploring expressions in Spanish

Prepare a story for performance, identifying appropriate expression, tone, volume and use of voices and other sounds; sustain concentration when listening; identify and respond to sound patterns in language; read aloud and recite; read on sight high-frequency words and other familiar words.

Music: explore and explain own ideas and feelings about music using movement

ROCKALINGUA <https://rockalingua.com/>

User name Grangepark

Password morado

Key Sounds

j rr r e a j Pronounced as h in jirafa

rr corre

r ruge

e-a E sounds like in the word EGG, A sounds like in the word APPLE.

el elefante

el león

el mono

el leopardo

la jirafa

el hipopótamo

la serpiente

Key Vocabulary

Spanish	English
El elefante	The elephant
El leon	The lion
El mono	The monkey
El leopardo	The leopard
El hipopotamo	The hippopotamus
La jirafa	The giraffe
La serpiente	The snake
El elefante se balancea	The elephant waddles/sways
El leon ruge	The lion roars
El mono trepa	The monkey climbs
El leopardo corre	The leopard runs
La jirafa se estira	The giraffe stretches El hipopotamo nada	The hippopotamus swims
La serpiente reptá	The snake slithers