Dear parents

RE: Further information regarding the school closure for the majority of pupils

Further to the letter sent out this morning, please see updates below:

Critical worker

The list for critical workers has been updated slightly to include parents whose work is critical to the EU transition response. Please click here for the updated list.

Extend- Breakfast and afterschool club provision

Extend will resume for critical worker parents who require full-time on-site provision from Tuesday 5 January. A further form via Parentmail will be sent to critical worker parents who have requested a full time on-site provision with details of how to book a place at Extend. The form will be sent on Saturday 2 January and parents will have until Sunday 3 January to book their place.

Start and end of the day for the on-site provision

We will let parents know the times of the start and end of the day for the on-site provision for parents of critical worker children and vulnerable children on Monday 4 January, as this is dependent on the number of children we will have on site. Further information on all the arrangements will be sent out to parents on Monday 4 January 2021.

With my very best wishes to you and your families.
